Dear Mrs. Moore:

I am pleased to acknowledge the receipt of 539 letters endorsing the candidacy of Clara Barton for election to The Hall of Fame for Great Americans in 1976. These letters will be brought to the attention of the Electors at the conclusion of the nominating period, when the election process begins.

We continue to receive many similar letters of endorsement on Clara Barton's behalf. Regrettably, the return address of the sender is frequently omitted. We shall be pleased to send acknowledgement cards to individuals who submit a return address. I would appreciate your calling this fact to the attention of your correspondents in the future.

Thank you for helping to stimulate widespread interest in the 1976 election.

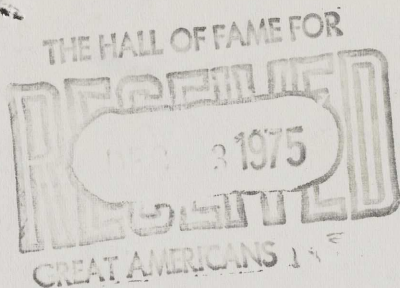

Sincerely,

Dr. Jerry Grundfest

To the Electors:

I hereby submit 539 letters signed by Citizens in the Town of Oxford and other friends endorsing the nomination of Miss Clara Barton into the Hall of Fame for Great Americans. The signatures were secured during the Town's Bicentennial Country Fair weekend. Realizing that Miss Barton's name will appear on the 1976 election ballot, the Citizens of Oxford, the birthplace of Miss Barton, are most enthusiastic that she will be elected this year to this great institution.

Therefore on behalf of the Citizens of Oxford, I humbly request that these enclosed letters be accepted as a part of the Campaign material for Miss Barton.

Sincerely yours,
Janice R. Moore
